ing Kavanaugh’s time with the Bush administration concerning the torture of prisoners of war and other unconstitutional war crimes were surprisingly absent from the hearing. Not a word about the legality of refugee babies being detained. It was surprising to see how the Republicans took one woman’s painful experience and used it to evade any questioning regarding human rights violations. It was like legal Jujitsu.

Here’s the Deal by Kenny Lukas

Trump now has his man on the Supreme Court. Brett Kavanaugh should prove to be an ally and asset who will gladly rubber stamp whatever sort of crackpot edicts that Trump dreams up. The ultimate yes man. The Senate was careful to keep the questions at the confirmation hearing limited to sexual assault questions only. Questions regard-
